

In addition to your regular performance contract the following conditions apply to productions of A Bronx Tale High School Edition: (i) the cast is comprised entirely of full-time high school and/or lower school students; (ii) there will be no advertising on TV or radio other than school stations or PSA's; (iii) there will be no internet advertising except on school proprietary websites; and (iv) newspaper advertising shall be limited to community and school newspapers.